

Hello & hope everyone is having a blessed, safe Saturday! Wanted to send out an update/reminder for a few things:

1. Due to the forecasted cold temperatures for tomorrow morning, the 8am & 9:30am Sunday Masses will be held inside. Once the nave (upstairs) of the church is full, people will be directed downstairs.

Please know that since we will be inside, everyone will be expected to be wearing a face covering in compliance with the directives of the Diocese. Hand sanitizer will be available both upstairs & downstairs.

2. The Life Chain will be held in Bryson City tomorrow, October 4th, at the intersection of Main St. & Everett St. from 2pm until 3pm. Please join us in giving a prayerful public witness for the sanctity of life!

3. Daily Masses are cancelled from Monday through Friday since I will be on retreat for the week (please pray for me!). The church will be open for prayer for the normal hours of 7am-9pm. Take a moment from your busy days and spend it with Christ. He (literally) has all the time of the world to spend with you!

4. On Saturday, October 10th, a Rosary Rally is being held here in Bryson City to offer prayers for our country. Current plans are for it to be held at the Fallen Soldiers memorial at the intersection of Main St. & Everett St. at 12pm. Please contact Naomi Lowman for more information.

As we continue in these trying & unusual times, know that we can all find comfort in the embrace of Our Loving Father & confidence in the steadfast rock of our Faith. Praying for each & all of you every day!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Shaw
