Divine Mercy Sunday

April 28th, 2019

Dear Parish Family,

As the world around us bursts with new life and each of the days grow longer, the Easter Octave comes to a close with the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday. On this day, the fruit of Our Lord's Passion & Resurrection is what is celebrated throughout the Church. Truly, we cannot imagine what this world and life would be like without God's mercy on a daily basis. Though we may not think we experience it daily, there are unknown moments and situations that could be profoundly different were it not for God's mercy: the close calls while driving, the times we narrowly avoid some injury or difficult situation, the times others show kindness when it doesn't need to be given. Each of these are moments when Divine Mercy being poured out upon us. So, let us give thanks to God for His humble care for us, for His charitable love that is beyond our knowing at times.

~Fr. Peter Shaw
