Palm Sunday of the Passion of Our Lord

April 14th, 2019

Dear Parish Family,

“And so, it begins.” This phrase can be used to denote the beginning of something ominous and terrifying, or it can be used to mark the start of something wonderful and awe-inspiring. For us, Palm Sunday and the days that follow are all of the above. They are days of celebrating the most clear manifestation of the mercy and love of God being poured out upon us even when we clearly do not deserve to receive it. They are also days of solemn introspection as we recall that the suffering Our Lord undergoes was not for any fault or failing of his own, but because of the sins that each of us have committed. If you have not made the journey through this week by means of the solemn liturgies that we enter into on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, & the Easter Vigil, please consider coming to these moments of grace that bring us face-to-face with the reality of Christ's love for each of us.

~Fr. Peter Shaw
