Sunday of the 13th Week of Ordinary Time

June 30th, 2019

Dear Parish Family,

I want to express my gratitude to Fr. Buettner for the time he was at St. Joseph's and Our Lady of Guadalupe. In some ways it's a gift that we are able to have a diversity of priests come to our mountain parish. Each priest that has come has always had very similar comments about how wonderful and kind the people are. Truly, we are blessed, indeed, yet we should never forget that in all of this, Christ is the one that must be thanked since He is the One from whom all blessings flow.

During the month of July, we will be further blessed with two more priests coming to the parish for the weekends: Fr. Paul McNulty will be offering the Masses on the 1st, 3rd, & 4th weekends of July, as well as the 1st weekend of August, and Msgr. Leigh Lehocky will be coming on the 2nd weekend of July. Fr. McNulty was ordained as a priest in 2014 and currently is the fulltime chaplain at Christ the King Catholic High School in Mooresville, NC. Msgr. Leigh Lehocky is a retired priest of the Diocese of Charleston who lives near Tryon, NC. Ordained in 1968, his 51 years as a priest offers a deep well of experience and insights that surely he will bring when he comes in 2 weeks.

On a personal note, this past week brought with it the conclusion of my first pair of courses for the summer. Please know that I am grateful of the generous prayers that many are offering for me as I continue my studies and always remember all of you in my prayers. Six more weeks and I can be back with all of you in our beautiful mountains, our lovely parish, and with all of you my spiritual family!

~ Fr. Peter Shaw
