Sunday of the 19th Week of Ordinary Time

August 11th, 2019

Dear Parish Family,

What happens now? That's the question we all are asking. Just like when anything unexpected happens in our lives, the first reaction is usually shock. Without a doubt, we were surprised that someone from this town would do what happened here on Wednesday evening. Where do we go from here? What happens now? Now, we must make a choice. We can allow the natural reactions of fear or anger to take root within our hearts or we can allow grace to help us move beyond those natural reactions and choose the supernatural responses of hope & charity. Keeping our eyes fixed on Christ, we are reminded that He is both our Shepherd, leading us when we are struggling, and the example of how we are to live: with sacrificial love for others. Christ chooses to keep loving each of us, though we have each sinned, each wounded the Him, Our Father, & the Holy Spirit. What was done to the images of Christ here in the church, we do to the actual face of Christ. We don't often think that when we sin, but that's the reality of it. He keeps choosing to love us, forgive us when we ask it of Him, and intercede for us to the Father. So, we follow where our brave Shepherd leads, we as the Faithful flock must follow. So, now we love those who have wronged us. We readily forgive when forgiveness is sought. We become intercessors for others. We become living images of the crucifixion: God's love offered for others. ~ Fr. Peter Shaw

Did you know that that you can make tax free distributions to St. Joseph's & Our Lady of Guadalupe directly from your IRA account if you're over 70½ years old?

These are free from federal & state income taxes, can help avoid Medicare high income surcharges, and can help reduce taxes on your social security benefits.

Distributions can be made directly to our parish and can be restricted so that it can only be used for specific purposes (building maintenance, DSA, grounds, etc.).

For more information, please contact
Bob Burns (rbjbs213@gmail.com).
