Sunday of the 30th Week of Ordinary Time

October 28th, 2018

Dear Parish Family,

Solemnity of All Saints (a holy day of obligation) is on Thursday. On this day we honor all the saints, both those who the Church has declared as saints and those who are not known to us. It's a day that we celebrate the victory of Christ over sin, the power of the salvation He offers us, and the witness of countless men and women who are already experiencing the joy of being perfectly united to the Most Blessed Trinity. The next day, we pray for all the souls in purgatory on All Souls Day. It is a reminder that we can still aid the souls of our deceased loved ones as we keep our loving bond to them alive in a selfless way through Christ. Beautiful days that reinforce our Faith. May we embrace them!

~ Fr. Shaw
