Sunday of the 30th Week of Ordinary Time October 27th, 2019

Dear Parish Family,

As the world changes around us during this Autumn, the Church brings us together to celebrate two profound realities: Life & Death. These two realities are the driving force behind nearly all that we find in the world and in the Faith, either the fear of them or the acceptance of them. For us who believe the message of the Gospel and the testimony of the Apostles, we know that death will come for all of us but that is not the end of our existence, that there will be a life after death. This drives us, whether that be by imperfect contrition & love, "fear of the loss of Heaven & the pains of Hell", or by perfect contrition & love, the pervasive desire to be perfectly united to the beloved of our hearts & souls, Christ Jesus. On Friday, we celebrate All Saints Day which commemorates all those who chose the latter path. The love of God formed & shaped the way that they lived here on earth that it was the lasting sign that they chose God. The following day, we offer prayers for all those loved ones that are still making their final atonement & preparations in Purgatory. While in Purgatory, they begin to experience Our Lord's Love, Mercy, & Justice. May these days unite all parts of the Church, Militant, Suffering, & Triumphant, all giving thanks and glory to Christ, who died that we might live!

~ Fr. Shaw

Did you know that that you can make tax free distributions to St. Joseph's & Our Lady of Guadalupe directly from your IRA account if you're over 70½ years old?

These are free from federal & state income taxes, can help avoid Medicare high income surcharges, and can help reduce taxes on your social security benefits.

Distributions can be made directly to our parish and can be restricted so that it can only be used for specific purposes (building maintenance, DSA, grounds, etc.).

For more information, please contact Bob Burns (rjbns213@gmail.com).
